“ I was so sad and happy at the same time when I read Mr. Cecil had gone home. I am so thankful for him. He had such a loving heart. He truly displayed Christ to me. I am so sorry I did not know he passed, I would have came home. Mrs. Margie I miss you and all of First Baptist so much. I will be praying for your comfort and will see you the next time I head that way.

“ Margie, Leslie and family, sons and families,

Margie, as you remember we met at a Stanley Home Products party many years ago. Dear Sister in Christ, just know you all are in my prayers. Even though my Bob was called home 3yrs,3months and 24 days ago, I know somewhat the many things you are experiencing and will experience; however, everyone's experience is different. Just stay close to the Lord, because He wraps you in care, comfort and love. His grace and strength is so amazing. You and Leslie give each other a hug from me. I will be in touch. Love and prayers from Trumansburg, NY.
