“ We don't understand God's working and the purpose. We put everything in his hands. He has called a precious angel home to be with him. We will always hold a place in our hearts for her. Our prayers are with you and your family at this time.
May the Lord place his hand on you and comfort you.

“ Kitty, Aaron, and Family,

Although no words can really help to ease the loss of Summer, just know that you are very close in every thought and every prayer. Hold tight to memories, and may the love around you help you through the days ahead.

We love & care about you.
Our sincere condolences,
Barbara & Kathy

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Summer is a "for real" angel now. I never met her in person, but know lots of the family (especially MS Veda)and kept apprised through Debbie @ Harlem Methodist Church. You can just sense when a child is so special and loved. You were Blessed with her physical presence for 10 years and will forever be Blessed with memories and knowing that she is so gently placed in God's loving hands to suffer no more. God Bless the people who love her so much and you will continue to know that many of us are still praying for you. I just know in my heart that Summer was and is a remarkable little girl.

“ Kitty I am so sorry for your lose. Summer was such a sweet little girl. She always gave me a BIG smile before getting off th bus in the morning, I looked forward to that and I know we all will miss it. She is in gods hands now with no more pain or suffering. If there is anything I can do to for you or you family please let me know. God bless you.
