“ I was recently looking back at many pictures of both Christopher & Travis when they were quite young. Heidi and I have such wonderful memories with them. Especially watching Christopher play baseball, football and swimming in our pool. He was such a kind and gentle soul. He was always watching out for Travis too. I'm sure he's watching out for all of his family now. Our Thoughts and Prayers are with Travis, Chrissy, Gidget and all the rest of Christopher's family on the 3rd anniversary of his passing. May God Bless and Continue to Comfort All of You...

“ Dear Travis, Chrissy, Sissy, William, Bill, Gail, Glen, Ernie and all of the Nagy Family and Friends, Heidi and I are truly sorry for your loss of Dennis. I cannot find a memorial page so I hope you all don't mind our condolences on Christophers. Our hearts have been very heavy for two weeks now ever since we found out about Dennis. We pray that he is now reunited with Christopher, Lorraine and the rest of his beloved family that has gone before him. I would like to say that Dennis was a complicated man. By that I mean you never really knew what you were going to get from him. I think all that knew him would agree. I can only hope that he will be remembered for the Smart, Strong, Loving, Helpful, Fun, Giving person he could be. I wish I could have been there in his time of sorrow because I realize now there is no more tomorrow. I believe in connections that are meant to last a lifetime but, we never know just how long that lifetime will be. I was married to him once and have always kept a loving place for him in my heart. Heidi has always loved him as well. He was a Great Step-Dad to her and she will never forget the love he showed her. We pray that all the wrong is now right and that all of his pain and sorrow is now ended. We pray for his happiness in his life ever after.

“ Chrissy, I am so very sorry to know you loss your husband at such a young age. The Bible states that "expectation postponed is making the heart sick" and I can only imagine the many expectations and future plans you both had together (Proverbs 13:12). As the days pass and the grief seems too overbearing may you reflect on God's promise to reunite us with our loved ones again here on earth (John 11:25).
