“ I was fortunate to be the daughter-in-law of Jacqueline Harmon. She blessed me with the best husband in the world, and I was able to thank her for that on many occasions. She and my son Robert were very close, which was a great comfort to me. I'm really going to miss you, Jackie, but I take grateful to know you're in God's loving arms, at peace, surrounded by your parents and all your loving siblings. May God grant you eternal peace.
