“ I was so sorry to hear about Sarah's death but glad to know that she is with her Lord now with a perfect memory, a glorified body with no sickness.
My thoughts and prayers are with the family. From being her hairdresser for several years and then working on the Plaza for 3 years I have a headful of memories of her stories. I told Ray the other day about her climbing the cedar tree at the end of the road to watch for the mailman so she could get the paper before her Daddy and read the funnies. She was a loveable character.
God bless you all, love in Christ. Bonnie
