“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of Frank.

Frank was always a friend to me. He would always help me when I needed information about real estate.

Frank will be missed by many people. He was always thoughtful and helpful to his friends.

My prayers are with all of you.

“ Mr. Frank and Miss Estelle were very special friends of my mothers, Sarah McCormack, who passed in Dec. 2009. She thought so very much of them. I still recall as a little girl and in years to follow growing up and never forgetting the kindness and strong family unit that the Stewarts shared. Mr. Stewart was a kind and caring man. My prayers are with you all.

“ Frank was a dear friend for a lot of years. I certainly enjoyed knowing Frank and working with him over the years. For a short while, Frank, Jamie, and I were in the mortgage business together. He was a real delight to know.
