A memorial service will be held from Sherwood Baptist Church, Wednesday, September 14, 2011, at 12:00 noon, with the Reverend Don Shires, Reverend Marion Jay and Reverend Jim Johnson officiating.

Mrs. Cloer, a native of Ft. Monroe, VA, had lived in Augusta for nearly forty years. She was the daughter of the late Alvin and Clara Chapman Kilpatrick. She had retired from Gracewood State School and Hospital as a Care Taker and was a member of Sherwood Baptist Church where she had taught Vacation Bible School.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Cloer is survived by her children, Michelle Cloer, Jennifer Garcia and Andy Cloer all of Augusta; her grandmother, Artence Chapman; her brothers, Alvin Kilpatrick of McBean, GA, Kenneth Kilpatrick of Augusta, Tommy Kilpatrick of Blythe, and Steve Kilpatrick of Martinez; and four grandchildren, Taylor Lafferty, Nathanael Garcia, Madison Cloer and Christian Kilpatrick.

The family will receive friends this Wednesday from 11:00 A.M. until the hour of the service at Sherwood Baptist Church.

Chance & Hydrick Funeral Directors, 2502 Richmond Hill Road, Augusta, GA 30906.

Tribute Wall

“ On to bigger and better things Miss Tina! I hope your holding your mother's hand down that dirt road you told me about. You will be missed by many.
