“ To say my heart is broken is an understatement. Ree was one of the dearest friends I've known. I worked with her for the last two years and she made each day a pleasure. I will miss her terribly. Phil, even though I didn't know you as well as I knew Ree, my thoughts and prayers are with you. One

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation that we may be able to comfort others, (2Corinthians 1:3-4) strengthen and sustain you through the difficult days ahead. Throw all your burdens on Him, because He cares for you.

“ All though we did not see one another often I have always thought about you and your family. I will never forget when you and Phil lived in Aiken and you had your first child (can't remember which was borned first) Muller (my grandmother) and I can to see you. Just wish that we could have seen each other more often but it just wasn't meant to be.

Phil, I know just how you are feeling right now for I went through the same thing December 2004. Someone told me at the visitation that each day would get a little better and they were right. Each day does get a little better. You might not think so but you will see what I am talking about later. Donald and I were married 29 1/2 years but of course not near as long as you and Rosemarie. There will not be a day that goes by that you will not be thinking of her and the good times.

“Ree:
I love you very much and will miss you dearly. You are the sweetest, kindest person I know. Through all the struggles I have been through with my sister's kids you have always been there for me. Your advice, your shoulder to cry on, and your fashion and hair advice will never be forgotten.

I am so sorry that I did not get to visit you. I will carry that guilt with me forever. The last I heard, you were not allowed to have any visitors except for family.

I know you are up in Heaven with that Yorkie puppy in your arms. God knew that since you could not have one here on Earth, He took you home with Him where He has plenty of puppies for you to love on.

When you see Princess Diana and Elizabeth Taylor; give them each a big hug and kiss for me.

Socastee High School has lost a sweet lady that can never be replaced.

*Love you always;
Christine Green*
