“ Our deepest condolences are with the family. We did not know about cousin Tommy passing away until late last night. Tommy and I (Elaine) were very close and I will always cherish the fond memories I have of him. Know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. With great sympathy, Elaine, Eloise and families.

“ My name is Jimmy Hewett. I met Tommy at Hillside Park in Augusta. I was his baseball coach. As Christians Jesus teaches us to become servant-leaders. Through the years I watched Tommy become a servant-leader. I pray that Tommy's family will find comfort in God's words and the sympathy of others in your loss.
