“ Dear Michael and Ashley and family...I'm so sorry that your Dad has passed away. You will miss him...you will miss speaking with him and hearing him laugh. I pray you will take comfort in all of the warm memories of him and treasure the things he taught you. He will live on through you.
He is enjoying the life now that is eternal...I'm sure there was a celebration as he stepped across from death to life.

My heart and prayers are with you.
