“ Alan, I am so sorry to hear about Marty. I don't take the newspaper anymore and didn't know until Brendan sent me a message on Facebook about 15 minutes ago. He just found out today also. Marty was a beautiful, sweet woman and will always be remembered as such. My mom died with liver cancer a little over three years ago and I know how hard it is, even when you know it's coming. Praise the Lord that Marty is in a much better place with no pain or suffering, finally being able to spend time with her daughter and brother. We will see her again with that same sweet smile and soft, gentle voice. I love you, my friend. Please call me if you need me, even if just to talk. We can meet for coffee sometime, if you like.
