

Roy "Peanut" Taylor

November 25, 2012

Blythe, GA - Roy "Peanut" Taylor, 52, entered into rest Thursday, November 22, 2012.

Plans for a funeral service are pending and will be announced.

Mr. Taylor was a native and lifelong resident of the Augusta area and was the son of the late Roy Russell and Trudy Amerson Taylor. He was a retired mechanic from Craven's Auto Parts, a good natured, loving father, brother and grandfather and of the Baptist faith.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Harry David Taylor.

He is survived by his son, Roy Lee Taylor; daughters, Candyann Taylor and Crystal Taylor; sisters, Joann Newman, Amanda Watts, Penny Taylor and Wanda Taylor; grandchildren, Cody, Emily, Makayla and Hannah Taylor and Joshua and Cory Germany.

The family will receive friends Sunday, from 3:00 until 5:00 PM at the funeral home.

Chance & Hydrick Funeral Directors, 2502 Richmond Hill Rd., Augusta , GA 30906 .

Tribute Wall

MC

“ We just found out about "Peanut" today, 12/1/21012, by Mr. Charles, his ole friend. We were friends and neighbors in fish village. Peanut will be missed but never be forgotten. He was a great person and well known throught out the Community. May his light forever shine in glory!!

Mark and Phyllis Cole - December 01, 2012 at 01:35 PM

BT

“ May our thoughts and prayers will be with your family at your time of loss of Peanut. He was a good man well known and loved for years and always will be . Love the Briggs Family bradley taylor - November 28, 2012 at 03:34 AM