God saw she was getting tired, and a cure was not to be... So he put his arms around her and whispered "Come with me". With tearful eyes we watched her suffer, and saw her fade away. Although we loved her dearly we could not beg her to stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God took her home to show us God always takes the best. A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, May 29, 2013, at 3:00 PM in Lifepoint Church with Pastor Brandon Lanier officiating.

She was preceeded in death by her father, John Michael Brown. She will be dearly missed and had a heart of Gold.

Survivors include her daughters, Elizabeth Amanda Rettig and her husband Chris and Brandi Nicole Brown and her husband Devon; mother, Barbara Brown; brother, Joseph Brandon Jackson and his wife Raegan and their children Kaydon and Kambree and step brothers and sisters.

Chance & Hydrick Funeral Directors 2502 Richmond Hill Road, Augusta, Georgia 30906.

JJ	“ We were so very sorry to hear the sad news about Buffy. She fought hard....much harder than the average person would have. I always think of her every time I hear anything mentioned about Georgia football. She was a proud fan. She fought for her team and she fought for her life. Girls, when this life gets tough, always remember the fight your mother had in her and carry that fight on. She will always be a part of this life through you two.
