“ Deb,
*My heart is heavy after learning of Miss Elizabeth's death. She was always kind and generous to me. As I have said before; I loved to listen to her speak with that beautiful accent. When she spoke, one knew they were in the presents of a graceful southern lady.
You, Watson, and the family are in my prayers.
Love you,
Ben*

“ Debra, Watson, and family,
I can remember how gracious your mother was to open her home to me when I was working in Lincoln. She would always have words that would lift your spirits. I know she is happy now, being with your dad. I am sure the angels already had a special song picked out when she stepped through the pearly gates. I know the Master was there to greet her and told her "Job well done". Debra, Watson I would love to tell you it will be easy but to me after my loss it takes time. Hold close to your families and to God it will make it easier. Love you both Olin
