“ *When you had Ronnie as a friend, you had a true friend and we've lost a true friend. He was a good man with an enormous heart and a sense of humor to match. He'll be missed by all his family and friends. Our hearts are heavy with his loss. May your memories comfort you and carry you through the days ahead. Smooth sailing, our friend. Rest in peace.*

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Although not a blood relative I have always considered Ronnie as a cousin. May God be with him and share his consoling grace with the family at this difficult time. I am sorry that I will not be able to be with you Friday.

God bless,
Kerry
