“ Shelia, your are in my prayers. Losing your parents is never easy. Look to the Lord for your strength. I never had the pleasure of meeting your Mom, but I know she will still live on in you and your brothers.

“ Ethel Hollingsworth was a woman of tremendous fortitude. She was a wonderful mother and grandmother. She was an independent woman before it was trendy (i.e. before "women's lib"). She was an inspiration as both a single Mom and a Christian woman. She was a classy lady who embodied Love, Patience, and Grace. I have always held her in the highest esteem. Her memory lives on with me. I am sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,
Jocquelyn
