“ Carl,
It always seemed to be summertime when we were kids, living across the street from each other, playing baseball or football along with your brothers and neighborhood friends in that empty lot next to your house that drew a crowd on any given day. Life was so simple in those days and we'd live to play again every other day. Goodbye old friend. Donald 308/Cove

“ Dear Wanda, I just heard about Carl today, my thoughts & prayers are with you & I do know your pain. You know I worked 10 years at Nutrasweet with him. He really taught me a lot about HVAC & life. I remember he had your picture on his desk. I know he loved you dearly! He would tell me what y'all did on the weekends & how much fun he had. He was always looking forward to spending the next weekend together. I was a little jealous about what you two had together. You don't see that often when A man is deeply in love with his wife. Me & Carl had some good times too, I would play a trick on him on Friday's. I would grease the door knob on his van & he would be mad when he found it, but on Monday he would be cooled off about it & we would laugh about it. We would pick at each other about being Democrats. We had a lot of good laughs together. He was a patient and knowledgeable man. He will be truly missed! I know he's in a better place than we are. Doug

He was a patient man. He was a knowledgeable man & he was a friend.
