

J. Edgar Lamb

July 20, 2014

Augusta, GA - J. Edgar Lamb , 91, husband of the late Martha Louise Williford Lamb, entered into rest Saturday, July 19, 2014 at the residence.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, July 22, 2014 at 1:00 P.M., from Calvary Temple Assembly of God with Reverend Ray Farmer and Reverend Bobby Williford officiating. Interment will follow in Jordan Chapel Church of God Cemetery, Edgehill, GA.

Mr. Lamb was born in Glascock County, GA and had made Augusta his home most of his life. Mr. Lamb had served his country in the U.S. Army during World War II and he was retired from the Graniteville Company, Sibley Division. He loved his family, to fish and his church, Calvary Temple Assembly of God, where he was a dedicated member.

Survivors include his daughters, Frances Munnerlyn and Barbara Jones (M.G.); sons, Jimmy Lamb (Deborah) and Les Lamb (Terrie); 10 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and his beloved pet dog Sue; as well as a host of nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends Monday evening from 6:00 until 8:00 PM at the funeral home.

Chance & Hydrick Funeral Directors 2502 Richmond Hill Rd., Augusta, Georgia 30906.

Tribute Wall

TW

“ You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Have many fond memories, as a kid, of Edgar at The Coach. The photo of him sitting on the front porch in Jack Leigh's "The Ogeechee, A River And Its People" epitomizes the peace and tranquility we all find at The River! May he forever have that peace and tranquility. Praying for strength for all of you as you grieve your loss. (BNW)

The Wideners - July 21, 2014 at 05:28 PM

SP

“ I knew Edgar for a long time. he will be Missed Praying for comfort for the Family.

Spencer - July 21, 2014 at 12:07 PM