“ Jessica, Morgan, and Meagan:

Just want you to know that I'm praying for you all during this difficult time. You know better than all of us how caring, loving, and giving your Mom was, and I know you will always keep her in your heart(s), just as I will. If you ever need anything, please don't hesitate to call. I will treasure my memories of your Mom forever.

“ My heart just broke when I heard the news of Sandra's passing. What a wonderful sweet loving person she was. If you talked with Sandra you knew her love for life and how very much she loved her children and grandchildren. Although her life was not always easy, she always had time for others, if it was nothing more than a phone call. Sandra I was blessed to have known you and to have had you as a friend, I know we will meet again one day. Bless you sweet one and RIP.

But she is in such a better place, walking the streets of gold, and she got to enter those pearly gates.. AMEN!! She is your angel now, just like meme, and our uncle Ralph, and sweet Caleb. They will always be with you, watching over you. God only takes the best! I am here if you need anything.... RIP Sandra!!! Love yall!!!

“ My heart aches for these girls as they grieve the loss of their Mother. Sandra, still young in spirit, but with a heart that seemed so old and weary, made me grieve for her. Seems a little trite, but I can see Caleb in her arms, and she, now, with a smile on her face. Prayers for the family as they begin a new chapter in their lives. Love like your Mother did, give as she gave, lend a hand to those in need, cherish your memories and be strong for your babies. She would never want them to be sad because of her leaving, but help them (later) to remember how much she loved them and how important they were to her. Even in difficult times, Jessica, Morgan and Meagan, you always knew how much your Mother loved you. I know you will miss her, so will we. Keeping you close in thought and prayers during this time and the days to follow. Love you all!
