“ I have many fond childhood memories that include Mrs. Cheney and Sunday School at Mann Memorial. She was an inspirational lady who will truly be missed. She will be met in heaven by so many Mann Memorial church members, including my own grandparents Vernon and Margaret Montgomery, who have already crossed the bridge to join our heavenly father. My family extends prayers for the loved ones left behind, that you all be comforted in the knowledge that she touched and made a difference so many young lives. God Bless, Carla
