

Betty Mason

January 31, 2016

Augusta, GA - Mrs. Betty Boyd Mason, wife of G.L. Mason, entered into rest on Monday, January 25, 2016 at University Hospital.

A private service will be held in Hillcrest Memorial Park

Betty Mason was a native of Augusta, GA, lived in Manchester, Connecticut for a short period, and had lived all of her adult life here. She was the daughter of the late Daniel Chester and Marie Berrie Boyd. In her younger years she enjoyed the theater, writing stories and watching old movies. She was the Office Manager for her husband's business, Master Fabricators, loved to shop and taught Sunday School at Calvary Baptist Church where she and Mr. Mason were faithful members.

In addition to her husband she is survived by her daughters, Christine Delmerico and her husband Joseph and Marsha Mason and her husband Wayne Lowe; her grandchildren, April Delmerico and Denise Keenan-Collins; her great grandchild, Courtney Collins; as well as a host of nieces and nephews. Mama, we miss you more than words can express.

Chance & Hydrick Funeral Directors, 2502 Richmond Hill Road, Augusta, GA, 30906.