“ To a dear and precious family, who for a life time, with eternal dividends will be blessed! My thoughts and prayers are with each one of you at this time. Thank you Charlotte for opening your home, your love and your heart to a lost young man many years ago. By God's transforming power and through your family, my life was forever altered and changed! I have never met such a unique and beautiful lady who fulfilled so many roles and touched so many lives with her love and compassion. Thank you Pam and Keith for allowing me the opportunity to have known your Mother and Father and to have been a part of your family through the years. I will forever be grateful and the impact your lives have had on mine will be felt for many generations! Love and Prayers - Nat
