“ Wes - you have been a friend to many, a father to three, a trusted family member, a business man in the community, a son, a brother, uncle, and so many more including a "car guy." Your contributions to the world in all these areas will be missed. You will remain a part of each of these areas as long as someone remembers your life, your smile, and your contributions.

I am sad to lose a brother-in-law. You will be missed, but you will not be forgotten.

Our thoughts, prayers, and love to your friends and family; I'm glad I got to be in both groups.
