The Cook Family:

Words are inadequate to express our profound sadness in the illness and passing of your beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and family matriarch, Daisy Cook.

We pray that God shall continue to give you the strength, courage and peace during the difficult days ahead.

May you continue to hold fast to her precious memories and her gentle spirit that richly embraced and touched the lives of so many people...for she will always be in your heart.

Continue to hold fast to God's unchanging hands; the indelible mark and her life legacy she left for others to follow that shall forever be etched in the footprints of time.

We have fond memories of Aunt Daisy when we visited her and Uncle Johnny in Augusta. She always made us feel a home. She made the VERY best "Banana Pudding", I called it Real Banana Pudding.

*Love and continuous blessings always,
Vic, Terry, Joey and Ben Williams*
