“ I am truly sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the Wedbrook family find comfort and strength in Jesus promise along with our heavenly father Jehovah of the earthly resurrection, where death will be eliminated forever. Truly, what a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality though for God cannot lie!

“ I have known Fran for about 20 years and this is about the hardest thing I have ever had to do. I have waited until now to offer my condolences and thoughts because of trying to process all this. I am not sure I have done that yet, so, I am just speaking from my heart. Fran has always been a very special person. She was always able to give of herself and was always a loving person. I had the honor and pleasure of not only knowing her, but, parts of her family and I remember that very fondly. My prayers are with Kat and with all the family that Fran was a part of. If I could, I would leave a hug and a soft word for Claudia, Marion, Carla and Mom. May He lift up all of Fran's family and friends in this time of grief and use their memories to celebrate her life. May He comfort all and let them see His Love and Grace. May He remind us that Fran is in a place now by His side (and is most likely letting Him play with some of the pugs that have preceded her). All this I ask in Jesus name. Amen.

“ A friendship cut too short. Never having met in person but I could tell from conversations Fran was a very friendly and helpful, giving person. Always there with an open ear if you needed to talk. A great, almost quirky sense of humor, I will miss all your jokes! My friend I am glad for the chance of getting to know you. Prayers of strength and comfort for her family. Hold on to your memories to keep her close by your side.
