

Michael Kevin Pace

January 2, 2019

Augusta, GA - Friends and family of Michael Kevin Pace are invited to a Celebration of Life at the Plum Branch Yacht Club Pavillion on Saturday, January 5, 2019, at 12:30 PM.

We will say our farewell his way - at the lake. Please bring your chairs, printed pictures for a memory wall and a potluck dish to share. There will be a short service followed by friends and family sharing their good times, laughter, and memories. The meal will be served immediately following.

Kevin was born in Augusta, GA on November 4, 1965, and entered into rest on Friday, December 28, 2018. He was the son of the late Myrna King Pace and Harold Dean Pace, Sr. He worked for Cooks Machine Shop for 35 years and was the Shop Manager at his death.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Harold Dean Pace, Jr "Happy", and Steven Keith Pace.

He is survived by his wife, Lisa A. Pace, of Augusta; his son, Colton Pace, also of Augusta; his stepson, Michael Thomas McCalmon; and his brother, Larry Gene Pace, of Harlem.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made at the Celebration Service for a memorial gift honoring Kevin which will be determined at a later time.
