“ As Bell's mother I don't have words how I feel I've had lots of loss but not this not my baby girl. She always put other's before her self she had no problems of telling you like it was. she was a loving mother and wife. Them babies was her world. She had a drive when she wanted something she would make it happen she had the most tender heart as a child we watched the fox and the hound it made her cry and she was still tender hearted as a adult. As Bell moves on to her new Journey I have to learn how to do this life without out my Beautiful Bell. I love you my sweet Bell.
