“ My loving sister, I cannot believe you are gone. It was so quick and and I am just completely lossed We were so close since childhood and talked almost everyday. I know you are in a better place with God in Heaven and seeing mama & daddy and our sisters and brothers who had already gone before you. I always wondered who would be next. I missed you the minute I knew you were gone and know you can see I am having a very hard time accepting this. You know I was always a very strong person and this is one thing I had to give it to God to help me through this. I will see you again and will look out for Patsy and Craig and your grandkids for I know that's what you would want. God received an Angel with you. Love you forever.
