“ Sure hated to hear that Aunt Janet passed away but so glad she is not suffering anymore. She was such a sweet person and when I was growing up, I looked at her as my second mother (since she babysat me everyday while mom worked). Other than my mother's cooking then I would definitely say Aunt Janet was next in line as a great cook.

I hate that I couldn't be there today in person for her services but I have had the flu very bad and am just getting over it. I do have all of the family in my thoughts and prayers. I know Aunt Janet will truly be missed. But she's in heaven with Uncle Frank now and rejoicing and with no more pain either. Sincere condolences.
