“ I am one of the freshman at hepzibah high, and Ms.Hoover was one of the nicest people I knew there. She is definitely the best librarian I had! I give sympathy to her family members, I am so sorry for their loss.

“ Sympathy to family and so many others that came into contact with Lori. Dedicated can't begin to describe her care for her students and staff. Lori cared for her community and citizens also when she was involved with the Gracewood Community Association. Always a smile and concerned about others. Assisted her Mom in so many ways. She is now resting in peace.

“ Miss Hoover was such a wonderful teacher/librarian and a beautiful person! Two of my girls were her students and we all are so grateful they had her for Academic Decathlon, her dedication to her job and her students was amazing. We will miss her and never forget her. God bless your family in this time of sorrow.
