“ I haven't really dealt with you being gone yet. I miss you very much. It is coming up on 4 years and the pain is still very much real. I know that you are much much better off and that we will see you again one day, but I do miss you so very much. I find myself going thru different things and want to pick up the phone and tell you good news, or tell you how my day went. I want to tell you something funny that one of the grandbabies did. It still doesn't seem real. I have to listen to your voice sometimes to make sure that I don't forget the sound of it. I look at pictures to make sure that I don't forget any of your features. I am my daddy's daughter!! I love you and miss you greatly. Until we meet again.....

“ Becky and I recently learned that Johnny has passed, and our hearts reach out to the family. Johnny was one of the preachers who conducted our wedding ceremony, and for an extended time, we attended church with both him and Ms Martha. Wonderful memories indeed!

It does not seem like it has been a little over a year. Tomorrow will be 14 months. There is not a day that goes by that I do not miss my daddy, more than anything in this world. I don't wish you were back here in this cruel world but I miss you so much!!! Tears always flow. I love you very much!!! Longing for the day to see you again!!!

There is in store for you the crown of righteousness which the lord, the righteous Judge, will award to you on that day as you rest in the arms of Jesus our savior.*

“ Aunt Marthann and family,
Uncle Johnny will be so missed. I love him and have so many memories that it's hard to name them all. I remember him coming to the house when I was a little girl and setting at the piano and singing and playing for hours. I also remember the last time y'all were able to come down to Savannah, we all went out to eat and he told me that day that the man I had just started dating was gonna purpose to me in three months and he sure did as Uncle Johnny prophesied and just like he said that man would be my happily ever after as Aunt Marthann is for him and again he was so right! I love you all very much and he will be missed so much. I wish I could be there today but I couldn't take off from work!

“ Martha and family,
I am so sorry to hear of Johnny's passing. He always had a smile on his face for everyone he saw. I remember that he taught at a private school that I went to in the 7th grade on Tubman Home Rd. He would always whistle. I remember I started calling him "Tweety" because of that. I'm not sure he even knew that.
He is now in Heaven with my Dad, Junior Black, and my Aunt Dottie O'Shields. He loved them both, and they loved him. They are smiling and loving on each other now and just waiting to see all of us again.
Keeping you and your family in my prayers. Love to all. God Bless.

“ 2 Timothy 4: "7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith"
What a fight, what a race, Johnny, through it all you kept the faith.
Go rest high up on that mountain,
man of God.
