“ Cookie I love you, I always have through the good and the bad. I know you are happy and well and You are telling Charlie about all his kids and grandkids. I know it is funny but I picture a family reunion when you walked through those gates with tears of joy. I love you and will see you again... Until then let your baby know how much we miss him, but he would be proud of all his kids. And now we all have another Angel watching over us. Love you Nan
