

Michael Jesse Brantley

November 24, 2021

Michael Jesse Brantley, entered into the gates of heaven on Tuesday, November 16, 2021, to be reunited with his late, beloved wife, Deborah Parrish-Brantley.

Michael Jesse Brantley was born and raised in Charlotte, NC. He was an absolute amazing husband, father, brother, uncle, and mentor to many of people who cared and loved him. Michael had a passion to make people laugh and smile by telling one of his funny jokes; he never met a stranger and would give the shirt off his back if he needed to due to his big heart; he was very well known and loved by everyone he ever encountered.

Michael Jesse Brantley is survived by his children, Nicholas Brantley, Mckenzie Toogood, Kyle Parrish, Kelsey Parrish; his brother, Billy Brantley as well as plenty of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who became family though out the years; he will forever be missed!
