“ I will miss uncle Robert as everyone else will. I knew him as a gentleman. I'm thankful for the opportunity to have talked with him quite a bit at reunion this year when he seemed well. This is my indelible memory of him remaining, and the sound of his voice is still with me.

I'm sad he is gone, but so happy he isn't suffering.

“ Robert Dozier was a man of conviction. He always tried to do the right thing. He was from the greatest generation, serving his country during two Wars. He always providing for his family, and served the Lord Jesus Christ. Over the years Robert and I became good friends, it was always a pleasure speaking with him, his stories from his life were engrossing. He came from a time when you close a deal with a handshake. I pray now that his family, and friends find peace and comfort through Jesus during this difficult time. God has planned the time for everything and every action, and our choices should reflect what we value. I feel that Robert did just that. He gave thanks for all he had to the Lord. He set a good example on how to follow God's Commandments. It says an Ecclesiastes 3:4 "A time to weep, And a time to laugh; a time to mourn, And the time to dance;" Yes, all who knew Robert will mourn. But we also know, now... Robert will finally dance over heaven with his beloved Sarah. Amen
