“ Allen Jones was a dear friend and one of the most humble and Christ minded people I have ever met. I have worked with him off and on for 40 years. He was the same man at work as he was in the Church. Love you my brother and I WILL see you again.

“ Allen has held a place in my memories, there was a goodness about Allen, he worked with me a few times years back, we nicknamed him (Hoss), because of his easy going personality, and outright honesty, he,s the type of person, it,s an honor to have known him, My only regrett is having lost touch with him, there's few people our life time one could trust anything with. Allen was one of them, I,d run into Allen occasionally and we,d plan to hang out, it was mostly my fault the opportunity slipped by, my regret. One thing for certain, his place was reserved for him in Heaven
My Condolences to family, Marc Albert and family
