“ I lived next door to Sue on King St. a whole lifetime ago. She was in 3rd grade and I was in 2nd grade. At recess we met at the outer boundaries of our playgrounds so that we could spend that time together. Sue would bring us each a lollipop that Mrs Royster would pack in her lunch. We would tell secrets and laugh. Sue and her family only lived on King Street that one year but it was one of the sweetest childhood friendships that I can remember. She was kind and funny. I was looking for her online when I found this. I'm so sad that she's gone from this world.

God bless you all.
