

Brandon Lee Penvose

October 24, 1996 - March 11, 2025

Hephzibah, GA – Brandon Penvose, 28, entered into rest on Tuesday, March 11, 2025, at his residence.

Funeral services will be held from the chapel of Chance and Hydrick funeral Directors on Tuesday, March 18, 2025, at 12:00 P.M. with the Reverend Clifton Nobles officiating. Interment will follow in Hephzibah Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM on Monday, March 17, 2025 at the funeral home.

The Pallbearers will be Cory Penvose, Chris Penvose, Keith Penvose, Carter Penvose, Nick McGhee, Quan Watts, Kennar Lamkin and Derek Levins.

Born in Augusta and a resident of the CSRA all of his life, Mr. Penvose worked as a Chemical Operator for ALLNEX Corporation as well as at Greenwood for multiple years. He was a gamer (Roach ヽ) and biggest enjoyment was being a father to his kids, they were his whole world. He always had a big smile on his face whenever you saw him, he had the biggest heart and loved so deeply. He was very dear to so many people.

Brandon was preceded in death by his two maternal grandfathers as well as his uncle, Vernon Weatherford.

He is survived by his parents, Toni and Brian Penvose; his maternal grandmother, Carolyn Mock, and his paternal grandmother, Kathy Stewart; his children, Emma, Jayce and Jamison Penvose; brothers, Cory and Chris Penvose; uncles and aunts, Keith Penvose (Sandi), Tina Weatherford (Julio), Claudia Mock (Ricco), Tonya Chavous (Jeremy), David Rickerson, Melissa Penvose and Derek Penvose; as well as a host of cousins and nephews.

“ I remember Brandon from Gracewood Elementary. He was so polite and kind every time he came to my classroom for music. He always had a smile for the other kids and for me. Respectful, sweet students like him were the reason I could get up and come to school everyday! Praying for his family.
