“ To Jimmy and the Pardue family. So sorry to learn of your Mother passing away. Remember her and your Sisters from years ago. Your Mom assisted the Silvercrest Guys getting us to the Fair and back before we were able to drive several times. Always made a person welcome when visiting at your home. Prayers to you and family at this time.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Jimmy, Ann, Karen and Linda, those Pardue kids that I grew up with while their mom, Clara, kept watch over us. She was our Mom too, looking over me and my sisters like we were her own. Always welcoming us into the fold and serving as cook, nurse, maid, chauffeur and disciplinarian. She probably never realized the impact that she was having on our young lives. She watched us all grow up to qualify for Senior Citizen Discounts and provided a lifetime of memories that can still calm and nurture our soul. She will continue to live in us that experienced her charm, her care and her love.
