“ I didn't know Connie well, my daughter started dating her son. However, we ran into her and Cheri and Frankie at the store and grocery stores often. Always so sweet. Still not the closest but with stories from the family I always felt closer and Robert always worked on their car. We never actually knew her as good as I wish we would've but we did from meeting her a few times and stories from her son(my son I never had) her daughter in law .(my daughter), her grandkids(our grandkids) we send love to all the family and friends
