

David Quinn Perper

January 26, 1953 - May 2, 2026

Augusta, GA – David Quinn Perper, 73, entered into rest on Saturday, May 2, 2026, at Azalea Health Care.

Family and friends are welcome to gather on Friday, May 15, 2026, from 6 – 8 PM at Chance and Hydrick Funeral Directors.

Mr. Perper, son of the late David Perper and the late Catherine Jones Blust, was born in Augusta, GA. A drummer since he was 15, his family was fellow musicians and the many friends that he taught to play drums. A graduate of Aquinas played with bands including Dixie Grit, the Dixie Dregs, Frank Britt & the Reserve, Next of Kin, Gary Baxter show, The Robbie Ducey Band, and the Holleress. He performed with the Augusta Players from the late 80's to 1996. He was an inspiration to many and always ready with a joke. He will be sorely missed. His passion and love for music were the driving force in his life.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Mark Perper, and his stepfather, Wilfred R. Blust.

He is survived by his stepbrother, Bary Blust; his cousins, Barry White, Diane Hawkins, and countless friends.

“ So sorry to hear about David. I see he shares a birthday with me in January, only a year older. My condolences to family and friends. I cannot remember the last time I saw him but I do think I saw him play with Frank at the Speakeasy many years ago.

May he RIP.
