

Ervin Woodrow Hatcher

September 9, 1962 - July 28, 2025

Ervin Woodrow Hatcher, age 62, a distinguished veteran of the United States Army, passed away on Monday, July 28, 2025, at East Georgia Regional Medical Center. Mr. Hatcher was the son of the late Everett Henry Hatcher and the late Mary Frances Bailey. He was born on September 9, 1962, Walterboro, South Carolina.

Having served honorably in the armed forces earlier in his life, he later established his residence in the Central Savannah River Area (CSRA) and worked as an electrician. Mr. Hatcher enjoyed fishing, hunting, riding his motorcycle, working on automobiles, racing cars, and NASCAR. He was a devoted father, brother, uncle, and grandfather. Known for his cheerful disposition with a smile on his face and unwavering willingness to help others. Mr. Hatcher possessed unique and infectious sense of humor and that set him apart from the crowd.

Mr. Hatcher is survived by his children, including his son Chad Hatcher, his daughter Cecily Davis (Hugh), Misty Hatcher (Darryl). He is also survived by his ten grandchildren, Ivy'Onna, Ka'Myah, Destinee, DeAnna, Dreyden, Malia, Graceson, Nora, Tre, and Grace; his siblings include his brother Walter Hatcher (Stephanie), his brother Andy Bell (Holly), and his sister Debbie Forester (Cliff). He was preceded in death by his sister Luana Bell Jackson. Additionally, he leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

A service in honor of Mr. Hatcher's life will be held at the Chapel of Chance and Hydrick Funeral Directors located at 2502 Richmond Hill Road, Augusta, Georgia, on Monday August 4, 2025, at 12:00 PM. The family will receive friends following the service. In lieu of flowers, donations to Chance & Hydrick would be sincerely appreciated.
