

Jayden "Chance" Hartley

October 7, 2008 - March 28, 2026

Born and raised in Augusta, GA, Jayden "Chance" Hartley, age 17, was a loving brother, friend, and son, followed in death by his mother, January "Rose" Hartley, step-father Shawn Nickolas Rippe, his grandmother Bonnie Newsome Swint, and grandfather William "Larry" Swint. He is survived by his devout and loving sister, Dakota Hensley, Aunt Beth Mcpherson and Chad Mcpherson and uncle Mark Dillman. Outside of the family, he leaves his loving girlfriend Ivy Ryan, as well as his best friend and chosen brother, Riley Buster. Chance was goofy, family-oriented, and had an endless love for animals; he always made the most of life and spent the entirety of his time caring for the people and animals closest to him. His laughter and warming presence filled any room that he was in, and he always had something goofy to say just when you needed it. Chance will be missed and loved forever by so many. He truly made the most of life, and he deserved to live it to the fullest. Isaiah 57: 1-2 states that " the righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from evil to come, he shall enter into peace; they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness." Meaning that the righteous are often taken from us early to spare them from future calamities and evil. Chance is truly a righteous child, resting in eternal peace.

His service will be held on Wednesday, April 8th
