“ *My Pastor, My Friend, My Confidant,
Thank you for almost forty years of a very special friendship. I shall miss your voice and our conversations about whatever the news of the day happened to be. Thank you for special delivery of Miss Beth's red velvet cakes and for saving my life when I had Covid by making me your delicious chicken stew. I have to be at peace knowing you will spend your birthday and Christmas in heaven with your Savior...the one you have loved and served so faithfully. I shall always remember the countenance on your face Tuesday morning. My spirit was comforted because it was the face of a man who knew who came for him. My life has been richer because of knowing and having the gift of your friendship.*

I send my condolences to Beth and Joel bound by prayer.
