

Michael Eugene McMahan

July 10, 1946 - September 20, 2025

Mr. Michael Eugene McMahan, 79, of Augusta, Georgia, passed away on Saturday, September 20, 2025. He passed away while in the VA Hospital in Augusta, Georgia. Born July 10, 1946, in Ware Shoals, South Carolina. He lived most of his life in Ware Shoals, South Carolina. His parents were, the late Clarence "Mac" McMahan and the late Estelle Kay McMahan, both preceding him in death. His twin brother the late Marion William McMahan also preceded him in death.

Michael is survived by his husband Edward Moore, sister Kay M. McCoy (Keith), sister-in-law Shirley McMahan, brother-in-law Scott Moore, brother-in-law Chris Moore and many other family members. Family was very important to Michael and would go to all family gatherings until sickness prevented it over the past 2 years. Michael is not suffering anymore, and he is now in Heaven with God.

Michael did several things during his life. He was a school teacher, served in the army, ran a furniture store among other things. One of his greatest achievements was being CEO of a company that he founded, A.G. Auricson Co., Inc. He had great visions for this company, some of which never came to fruition. He enjoyed spending time in the Mountains and over the last 10 years enjoyed many trips with his husband to the mountains and other places.

Michael was a long-time member of First Presbyterian Church of Ware Shoals where he used to sing in the choir. He was an accomplished piano, organ, and keyboard player. He had played in several Churches in Georgia for Sunday Services. He is surely singing and making music in Heaven!

Michael was always considerate and caring towards his family. He was a loving son to his mother and father as they grew older and were plagued with health concerns. He was there to help them in anyway he could. Rest in Peace Michael, you deserve a peaceful eternity.
