

Rickey (Rick) M. Lockhart

February 22, 1949 - July 9, 2025

Hephzibah, GA – Rickey (Rick) M. Lockhart, a beloved husband, father, and friend, peacefully passed away on July 9, 2025. Rick was born in Phoenix, Arizona and he lived a storied life that took him across the world. Enlisting at an early age, Rick served in the U.S. Navy where he deployed during the Vietnam War and survived captivity as a prisoner of war. Afterwards, Rick spent his life as advanced welder, realtor, and even a cattle rancher.

Rick is survived by Michelle Lockhart, his loving wife; his loving children Melissa Lockhart, Michael Lockhart, Mitchell Lovett, and Kim Reeves; his siblings James Lockhart, Jerry Lockhart and Kellie Simmons; and his beloved grandchildren, Gracie Williams, Killian Lockhart, Josiah Chavez, Avalon Lockhart and Tyler Schievelbein, Jaeden Reeves, Kolbie Reeves ; his great-grandson, Adam Christopher Schievelbein Jr.

Rick is preceded in death by his parents, James Lockhart and Jessie Hopkins Lockhart, and by his daughter, Mary E. Lovett.

Rick was known for his honesty, his candor, and for his strength of character. Rick especially enjoyed fishing, and he spent his final years tending to the horses and animals that he helped rescue. Above all, Rick will be remembered for his unwavering support for his wife, family, and loved ones.

A service will be held in Rick's honor at 11:00 a.m. on July 16, 2025, at Chance & Hydrick located in Augusta, Georgia. The service will be followed by a private burial service at 1:00 p.m.
