“ What a good man he was. He constantly picked at me while I was working at the patch when I was 14 or 15 years old. I had to always stay out in front of the "dew sweepers" when I was cutting greens. We bannered back and forth, but it was just for the fun of it. The world lost a really good man, but heaven gain great soul. I'm sorry for your loss and I will remember him fondly. Charles "Eddie" Myers
