“ Sharron and I were close friends when Kelly was growing up and my kids too. Sharron and her family took us as part of their family. She kept katie and Lawson and he walked for the first time with her. Sharron didnt want to tell me, but of course kelly and katie did. Sharron was always there when i needed her no matter what. She was a kind and generous person. Her smiling face will be missed. I know you're telling your Mom and Johnny about your family. I love you

“ Saddened to learn that my former coworker and forever friend is no longer with us. She taught me so much “telephone company” stuff when our careers crossed paths. She was a smart, dedicated and sometimes humorous technician. We covered 13 rural towns and she knew every backroad, pig path and shortest route to get to all of them. When she was in deep concentration she would start humming and always remained calm no matter how tense the situation. Christmas season was time for her jingle bell socks, with little metal bells that jingled when she walked along with a red sweater to match. Her number one priority in life was her daughter Kelley. Numerous times she would bring Kelley to the office and let her sleep on the floor during a middle of the night callout. I was her “partner in crime” and will cherish her memory forever.
