“ Susan was in my graduating class and always a joy to be around. She was a funny and kind person. We will always cherish our memory from 2018 meeting up in Austin, TX ❤️ It was a short visit but a great one after so many years. I know she is rejoicing with the Angels and oh so happy to be with her Mama again and those that left before her. Rest easy now Susan and fly high.

“ Susan and I were friends from the day we met 15 years ago. She meant so much to me. And over the years we made many memories together through laughter and tears. I cherished our friendship over the years has meant so much to me. You always made me laugh and I love the times that we would just pour over God's word to find the answers to the problems in our lives.. I know she is resting safe in the arms of Jesus. No more suffering, no more pain. Just peace and joy.
