“ Mr. Reid was my customer, a teacher, my friend. I was always impressed and moved by how much he loved, cared for, and depended on his wife to stay his course in life. He was so concerned about her welfare in life and upon his absence on our earthly plane. I appreciated the time he spent teaching me about antiques, monies, and items most people might overlook their intrinsic value and function in the world. And when he spoke of his children to me, I always heard pride in his voice no matter what challenges life was throwing his earthly body. I will miss him. My staff will miss him. Rest in Peace Mr. Reid, you fought and fought well!

“ Mr Reid was a great man, a man that will be missed by many. I will never forget his kindness, he helped everybody he could. Even in his last days he thought of others before he thought himself. I strive be the man he was, a man I will never forget. The love for his family, and others will forever be remembered by me. I know it's a hard time for the family, but I hope you all can find peace knowing Mr Reid is in Heaven with our father.
