“ Roy: You and your children are in mine and Pam's prayers. They've lost their Mother, but you've lost your life's partner. It's a terribly hard pill to swallow. You are now on the same path that Pam and I both walked many years ago. No one knows what that path is like until they are walking the path. You and Vivian have both been very special friends to me and Pam as well as to me and Renee. You are in our prayers.

I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Stampley was mine and my brother's bus driver for several years when we went to Curtis Baptist. She was a wonderful person and will be greatly missed.

I was so very shocked to hear of Vivian's passing. There are no words to ease the pain and loss in your hearts. I got to visit with Vivian at Charles's birthday celebration and I am so glad I had the opportunity. We had a wonderful time and I will hold the memory close. I'm so very sorry for your loss, Vivian touched many lives and will be missed by all. Sending Love, Light and Positivity to you all.
